

Disability Inclusion in Sports Today

Participation in Sports

More than half of individuals with disabilities have increased their participation in sports over the past 5 years

4 out of 10

individuals with disabilities across all age groups who currently do not participate in sports would like to do so

Here are the ways those surveyed suggested could make sports more inclusive:

53%

Offer training facilities or access

48%

Increase awareness

36%

Sports medicine access

35%

Advocate for funding

28%

Access to mentorship

Participation rates among individuals with disabilities could reach

50%

if all challenges were addressed *

More awareness needed about organizations that offer specific support for individuals with disabilities

70%

of individuals with disabilities are not aware of organizations that support them

9 out of 10

individuals with disabilities are more likely to do business with a company that supports their community